

THE DAILY APPEAL.

TUESDAY MORNING, OCTOBER 30, 1857.

WEEKLY APPEAL.

OUR WEEKLY OF TO-MORROW will be a most interesting edition. It will contain all the current intelligence in reference to the present monetary derangement, and our usual amount of miscellaneous news, such as reliable reports from Europe. Besides the regular news, and an extract from President Buchanan's speech in the United States' Senate in the year 1840, in which he gives his views in full on the question of Banks; an article from Hunt's Magazine on the subject of Banking; Proceedings of a meeting of the Tennessee Legislature in session; and other matters, will be reported by a committee appointed at a last meeting; General Polk's Reply to Gen. Scott; War in India; Statements made of the condition of the Bank of Tennessee and the Planters' Bank; Descriptions of the Fair Grounds near this City; local news, Mississippi and Arkansas items, telegraphic reports, market reports, &c., &c. Price, 10 cents per copy, or 10 cents per copy. Single copies may be purchased at our counter room as usual.

REGULAR ADVERTISEMENT of the day is shown in another column.

COUNCIL.—Council meets this evening, when business of interest and importance is expected to be acted upon.

THE COUNCIL.—The city has now a Council Court in session, two hours in full operation, and several warehouses full of cotton bales.

OUR NEWS.—Our daily news is due to H. H. Campbell, check of the New York Stock to the Times, Jones of the Forest Sulphur, and the Adams' Express for late papers.

MEMPHIS CONFERENCE.—The members of the Memphis Conference, will be passed to and from Conference over the Memphis and Charleston Road, by paying fare one way.

SAM. STATE, TIDE.

The protracted meeting at the Christian Church is still progressing. We are informed that to-night will be the last. Elders McCall and Holmes will address the people.

CATHEDRAL FAIR.—A note from Capt. W. H. Howell, states that at the fair at the Old Hall, how Hall will be closed during the day-to-evening meeting. To-morrow a special supper will be prepared. The occasion will be most agreeable.

THE CENTRAL ILLINOIS.—That this railroad is still in the full tide of business, notwithstanding reports to the contrary, is attested by the fact that Col. Moore is still selling tickets. We learn from the Railroad Gazette that trains run now through St. Louis without change of cars.

JOURNAL.—The Reconsecrated Journal yesterday to twenty individuals, who, it is believed, or malice have introduced to his professional notice. Eight of them were sentenced to probation in the workshop, making the present number of boarders at that establishment sixteen.

INQUIRIES.—The dead body of a man was found yesterday near the stem of the steamboat Nebraska, now lying at the levee. Eng. W. W. Williams held an inquest, and the answer to the question as to the dress and appearance of the deceased, it was supposed that he had a black passage on some stream.

MISSES.—DOCTOR ANGUS.—Before well known in this city as a professor of music, has been missing since the night of Sunday the 11th. He was last seen at the Turners Hall. His friends have no close to the cause of his disappearance, and are a pray to the most sincere apprehension.

GENTLEMAN'S ADDRESS.—We were favored with visits yesterday from Gen. J. A. Tamm, and Mr. Tamm, who effected the Legislature from Tallahatchie and Col. Norcross, recently elected from the county of Marshall. They are both democrats of the strictest sect, and most agreeable and well informed gentlemen.

MISSISSIPPI LEGISLATORS.—We were favored with visits yesterday from Gen. W. P. L. Lewis, and Mr. Lewis, who effected the Legislature from Tallahatchie and Col. Norcross, recently elected from the county of Marshall. They are both democrats of the strictest sect, and most agreeable and well informed gentlemen.

MISSISSIPPI FAIR.—We saw three fine gold and silver mounted whips yesterday at the Soddy establishments of our friend W. P. Lewis, on Main street, and were told that the Mississippian fair, which is to be held at the Exchange Building, and the world-wide reputation of the horses and driving single at the Shelby County Agricultural Fair, which commences to-day.

PERSONAL.—We had the pleasure of meeting yesterday, Hon. Jno. L. ROBINSON, of Indiana, late a member of Congress from Indiana, and one of the most efficient advocates on the hustings of BUCHANAN and BRICKELLING during the late session of Congress. Robinson is now a candidate for Clerk of the House of Representatives, and so well pleased are his constituents with his conduct, that he is a member of the House, we should be strongly inclined to cast one vote for him against all who may enter the lists as competitors.

PROCESSIONS OF THE MESSIAH COMMITTEE.—The Mercantile Committee met at the Commercial Hotel, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to their resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

Resolved, That we, the members of this Committee, be instructed to correspond with our Stock and Free Banks here, and that our Secretary publish the same in the papers, at the earliest possible day.

On motion, the report of the Committee was received, adopted and ordered to be published in the city papers.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

Resolved, That we, the members of this Committee, be instructed to correspond with our Stock and Free Banks here, and that our Secretary publish the same in the papers, at the earliest possible day.

On motion, the report of the Committee was received, adopted and ordered to be published in the city papers.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

Resolved, That we, the members of this Committee, be instructed to correspond with our Stock and Free Banks here, and that our Secretary publish the same in the papers, at the earliest possible day.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.

J. H. A. LOWNES, President.

J. M. LANEY, Secretary.

FOR SALE.—The Merchant's celebrated Philanthropic Hall, in this city, last evening at 7 o'clock, pursuant to his resolution. A. L. Lovell, Esq., called a meeting to ascertain if the meeting was ready, and announced that the meeting was ready to receive the report of the committee of five, as appointed by the Committee on Saturday evening last; whereupon, C. C. CLEAVES, as chairman of that committee, begged leave to report the report of the Committee of Five:

Resolved, That the Committee, animated by a desire to run out the wishes of the citizens meeting, find themselves practically able to exert their influence in the public mind, in favor of their own side, are concerned, but the difference in standard, the variety of localities, and the diversity of circumstances, among the foreign citizens of this city, render the task of settling a reliable value to each, heretofore, in the execution of their objects, and therefore, as far as this Committee is concerned, most belief to regulate itself.

Resolved, That this Committee be instructed to correspond with the Cashiers of such Free Banks as we have received, and to make application to them, and to learn positively from such Cashiers, whether or not they can and will promptly exchange their notes for ours, and to our Secretary, the names of the banks with whom they can do business.